Two Cheryl Wheeler fans combine their love of Cheryl's lyrics with their love of calligraphy in a book worthy of any coffee table.

Sixty artists have visually interpreted the lyrics of seventy-three Cheryl Wheeler songs. This unique book will astound you not only in its breadth of imagery but also in its depth of intensity. Cheryl's striking lyrics come to life on the pages of this book through the pens of these talented calligraphers.

Cheryl Wheeler is a prolific songwriter whose songs have been covered by Garth Brooks, Suzy Bogguss, Bette Midler, Kenny Loggins, and Peter, Paul and Mary to name a few. The lyrics in this book represent the range of Cheryl's songwriting. Included are funny, sad, political, touching, and reflective songs that span the decades she has been a singer-songwriter. Some have not yet been recorded.

Cheryl Wheeler is an extremely entertaining and engaging performer whose melodies and lovely alto voice have been a presence on the folk music circuit since the 70's. This book highlights her poetic lyrics and gives them visual interpretation.

Nice Rendition, published by MarshMichaels was released on July 24, 2010 in conjunction with an exhibit of the original artwork at the 30th International Gathering of Lettering Artists held near Boston. The first 2000 books are numbered copies.
